Hoofland's Column.

YOU ALL HAVE HEARD OF HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, AND HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in 1825.

THEY CURED YOUR FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now in the country called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or anything like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are

The greatest known remedies for

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate diseases of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

is entirely vegetable and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made, are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtueus are extracted from them by a scientific Chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in case where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These remedies are the best

ever known and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order; keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies, and no diseases will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything, you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find that "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action in the system.

Yours Truly, GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES TAOMPSON.

Judge of the Supreme Conrt of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully,

J. H. KENNARD, Eigth, below Coates Street.

CAUTION.

Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. The Genuine have the signature of C. M. JACKSON on the front of the outside wrapper of each bottle, and the name of the article blown in each bottle. All others are counterfeit.

CAN A "DEMOCRAT" BE SAVED?

The following, which we cut from the columns of the Advance (Congregationalist), shows a curious drift in religion. Here, says the American Churchman, edvidently is a class of questions which never occurred to the ancient casuists. Can a "Democrat" be saved?—that is the question now rife among our Congregational brethren. Hitherto they have "converted," in the Church mentioned, none but "Republicans." Now, however, they have actually got some "Democrats" truely converted, and the question rises, can they be truely converted and still remain wicked "Democrats"

It is evidently an important question with the Congregationalists, whatever it be with "the Democrats." The Advance, as will be seen, is not at all clear on this new question. Indeed, it is one to puzzle the wisest head.

It is very hard to be serious on this subject, without expressing indignation at such an utter caricature of a Church as this, that makes a man's religion depend on his party politics:

DEMOCRATS AND CHURCH MEMBERSHIP.—A brother asked a question which has puzzled others beside himself:

"I wish to call attention to a matter that has caused some of us hard study and a considerable trouble of mind. During the progress of our meetings, several men were brought to an acknowledgment of Christ, and, as far as man is capable of judging, were truly converted to God, that have always been "Democrats." Some of them take the . . . ., and others the . . .; some are radicals, others conservatives. Thus far our church has none but Republicans in it, but we have nothing in our church constitution, by-laws, or Confession of Faith that excludes these persons from uniting with the church, if they give the required evidence of conversion on axamination. Some of our members, however, claim that a man is not converted who will not acknowledge the equality of man, black or white. On the other side, it is claimed, that from the Word of God, we have nothing that will exclude a man from the church that gives good evidence of conversion, and that we have no right to question a man as to his political opinions when he applies for admission to our church. I wish you would give us an opinion on this matter in the Advance."

No iron rule can be laid down, but each case must be judged by itself, in the exercise of charity and good sense. A regenerate heart does not, alas! always at once secure a regenerate head. It does not appear probable that a true convert will very long be edified with reading that consists of a New Testament interleaved with the . . . If, however, a man's error lie in ignorance, rather than malignity, if he do not deny human equality as regards a right to kind and just personal treatment, but only as to political privileges, about which the best men differ, and if he show in other respects the true Christian spirit, he ought to be admitted. (!)

"SHOOTING DESERTERS."—The Philadelphia Press having undertaken what it calls the purification of the Republican party, publishes the following as a "Senatorial black list:"

Fessenden, Fowler, Grimes, Ross, Trumbull, Van Winkle and Henderson.

Adding, in another place, Judge Chase's name, and demanding that these gentlemen shall be turned out of the Republican party." "We do not want political association with this clique," says the Press.

It also demands the expulsion of the —"New York Evening Post, Chicago Tribune, Cincinnati Commercial, Providence Journal, Springfield Republican, Bridgeport Standard, Buffalo Advertiser, Buffalo Express, and Hartford Courant."

The Post replies for itself:

"The support of men and journals of independent opinions is of great importance to a political party, and it would perhaps be well for the Republican party, now entering upon an arduous canvass, if its leaders would call off their dog."

WHEN Ulysses S. Grant was a small boy his father bought him a little hatchet. Ulysses was so delighted that he went about hatcheting everything he could find. One fatal day, after things had been going on thus, so, for a week, Ulysses cut down one of his father's favorite pear trees. When the old gentleman saw the ruin of his favorite pear tree he went to U. S. and said: "U. S. who cut down my favorite pear tree?" "I cannot tell a lie father; I cannot tell a lie," said Ulysses, "A. Johnson cut it down with his hatchet." "My dear son," said the old gentleman, spanking him, "I would rather have you tell a thousand lies than to lose so fine a pear tree."

IT is said that the increase of cholera in India is owing to the destruction of the crocodiles by Englismen. These animals used to eat the corpses that were thrown into the Ganges.

IKE MARVEL is convinced that brimstone matches were never made in heaven; and, says he, it is sad to think, that with few exceptions, matches are all of them tipped with brimstone.

CORRESPONDENCE.

DEAR GAZETTE.—Have you heard from Chicago? Has the telegraph already announced to you that the Bondholders have triumphed? How are the mighty fallen—Greely, Wendell Phillips, Anna Dickerson, Esq., and others noted, yet not so potent, of lesser note, yet mighty in "Loil" Conclaves in Union Leagues, in Dorcas Societies, Patagonian Missions, Boriboolah Gha and Kansas Aid Associations, all set aside, yea spurned, spurned ignominiously, and for what? Tell it not in Gath—for the "National Cigar Smoking Humbug," as Anna D., Esq., calls him. For that stolid, drunken creature Grant, whom Wendell has denounced in strains of indignant eloquence from the rostrum and through the columns of the Anti-Slavery Standard for months past; and H. S. damning with faint praise in the Tribune, yet working like a beaver for Chase or any other man except "Lyssus." But yesterday their words might stand against a world, now none so poor as do them reverence. Anna, having strengthened the back-bone of the Late Lamented, could mount the stump, and traitors, Rebs and Copperheads fled from her burning eloquence. Did she denounce one of them as "disloil" the Secretary's little bell jingled, the brave, chivalrous Baker summoned his minions, and soon the unhappy wretch disappeared in some Bastile that darkly yawned for him, and his place was vacant, his name blasted, his substance stolen, his children wanderers and beggars, and the truly "loil" rejoiced at his summary snuffing out.

Did things at the Capital drag too slowly, did the back-bone of the L. L. show signs of weakness, then Boanerges Phillips would hurl his withering sarcasms, or his more dreadful threats at all concerned, President, Cabinet, Congress, Courts, all hastened to obey his behests, to hurry forward the schemes in which he condescended to avow an interest, and then his God-like wrath appeased, he magestically returned to Boston and the Nation was tranquilized. Did he from the rostrum, in language that was an outrage and insult to Americans, hold up the savage, butchering Negro Chief of St. Domingo as the superior of the great and good Washington, all the decency party shouted Yea, and Amen! To doubt was treasonable, to differ, dangerous. Now he may roar himself hoarse, he may denounce Grant as a fool, as a drunkard, as one whom the negro-lovers dare not trust, and it has no effect; Loilty, Manhood Suffrage, Recenstruction, even the 40 acres and the mule are lost sight of, the Bondholders have told them they must be recreant to all former professions, must follow new prophets and a new creed, must eat dirt, and they cry "Kismet." It is fate.

"Truth is stranger than fiction." "Doubtful things uncertain," every adage bearing upon the instability of human affairs is more than verified in the action of the Chicago Convention and the conduct of the Republican party.

During the reign of Lincoln, every move of a partizan character, everything remotely bearing upon politics, was carried with a high hand. Whether the Ucase originated in Boston or Washington did not matter, when once issued the serfs bowed to and obeyed it. Did any disaffected person question its wisdom and justice, were there not subservient Courts, Military Commissions organized to convict, Secret Spies, Provost Guards, and local Police, all willing and anxious to seize upon and punish even before trial.

What do we now see? What is the present state of that arrogant, all-grasping party? Sitting in sack cloth and ashes at the feet of Grant, all its mighty men (and women) cast aside, the polished Wade, the chronic Sheridan, the eloquent Phillips, the philosophic Greely, the chaste Dickinson, all thrown aside for one who never believed or acted with them, who refused to answer questions, even when propounded by a Nigger Delegate from Virginia. Who with studied contempt has treated their rallying cries, their Orators, Mongrel Conventions, in fact all the usual party accessories. So desperate was their strait that they had to tamely bear it all, even his avowal before the Smelling Committee that he had favored Lee and other pestilent Rebels, had interposed between them and punishment, which, when they thought was done by Andrew Johnson, was treason, was violation of pledges, &c., &c., but when done by Grant, although overflowing with spite, malice, venom, all the devilish passions that they had nurtured during the war, they dare not complain, but forced in silence to swallow doses that sickened their souls, and added tenfold malignity to every New England insult to Almifihty God, offered in the guise of prayer. Sich is life!

What an affecting thing it must have been, when the news was received in the Grant family that "'Lyssus was a goin tew be President or sun'thin'." How proudly the form of the venerable and talented Jesse would dilate, as he in his new character of Correspondent of the Ledger, announced the news. How the heart of the intellectual Aunt would swell with joy as she thought of her future triumphs in the Nation's Capital, where her fame was established "as a great reader of history and having insisted on calling the baby Ulysses."

With what supreme contempt the whole family would view the hide and leather business, and how roundly they would swear never more to soil their hands with Dubbin or Fish-oil, but keep them ready to thrust into the public Treasury, where 'Lysses had already thrust his to the arm-pit. But let us not intrude into the domestic privacy of such refined people—It should be sacred.

RADICAL PLATFORM.

The platform adopted by the Chicago Radical Convention is as follows:—

The National Republican party of the United States, assembled in National Convention in the City of Chicago, on the 20th day of May, 1868, make the following declaration of principles:

First. We congratulate the country on the assured success of the reconstruction projects of Congress, as evinced by the adoption in a majority of the States lately in rebellion of constitutions securing equal civil and political rights to all, and regard it as the duty of the government to sustain these institutions and to prevent the people of such States from being remitted to a state of anarchy.

Second. The guarantee by Congress of equal suffrage to all loyal men at the South was demanded by every consideration of public safety, of gratitude, and of justice, and must be maintained; while the question of suffrage in all the loyal States properly belongs to the people of these States.

Third. We denounce all forms of repudiation as a national crime; and national honor requires the payment of the public indebtedness in the utmost good faith to all creditors at home and abroad, not only according to the letter, but the spirit of the laws under which it was contracted.

Fourth. It is due to the labor of the nation that taxation should be equalized, and reduced as rapiply as the national faith will permit.

Fifth. The national debt contracted, as it has been for the preservation of the Union for all time to come, should be extended over a fair period for redemption, and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can honestly be done.

Sixth. That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to so improve our credit that capitalists will seek to loan us money at lower rates of interest than we now pay, and must continue to pay, so long as repudiation, partial or total, open or covert, is threatened or suspected.

Seventh. The government of the United States should be administered with the strictest economy, and the corruptions which have been so shamefully nursed and fostered by Andrew Johnson call loudly for Radical reform.

Eighth. We profoundly deplore the untimely and tragic death of Abraham Lincoln, and regret the accession of Andrew Johnson to the Presidency, who has acted treacherously to the people who elected him and the cause he was pledged to support; has usurped the legislative and judicial functions; has refused to execute the laws; has nsed his high office to induce other officers to ignore and violate the laws; has employed his executive power to render insecure the prosperity, peace and liberty or life of the citizens; has abused the prdoning power; has denounced the National Legislature as unconstitutional; has persistently and corruptly resisted, by every measure in his power, every proper attempt at the reconsrtucton of the States lately in rebellion; has perverted public patronage into an engine of wholesale corruption and has been justly impeached for high crimes and misdemeanors and properly denounced guilty by the vote of thirty-five Senators.

Ninth. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers that because a man is once a subject he is always so, must be resisted at every hazard by the United States as a relic of the feudal times, not authorized by the law of nations, and at war with our national honor and independence. Naturalized citizens are entitled to be protected in all their rights of citizenship as though they were native born, and no citizen of the United States, native or naturalized, must be liable to arrest and imprisonment by any foreign power for acts done or words spoken in this country. And if so arrested and imprisoned, it is the duty of the government to interfere in his behalf.

Tenth. Of all who were faithful in the trials of the late war there were none entitled to more especial honor than the brave soldiers and seamen, who endured the hardships of campaign and cruise and emperiled their lives in the service of the country. The bounties and pensions provided by law for these brave defenders of the nation, are obligations never to be forgotten. The widows and orphans of the gallant dead are the wards of the people, sacred legacy bequeathed to the nation's protecting care.

Eleventh. Foreign immigration, which in the past has added so much to the wealth and development of the resources and the increase of power of this nation—the asylum of the oppressed of all nations—should be fostered and encouraged by a liberal and just policy.

Twelfth. This convention declares its sympathy with all the oppressed people which are struggling for their rights.

THE REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT.

If a backwoodsman should insist on using an axe to cut his crop of grain, instead of a sickle, because the axe had rendered good service in felling the forest that stood upon the same ground the preceding year, nobody would be apt to think well of his judgment in the selection of a utensil. As we are not to have a war, there is less fitness in the selection of a general, than of a statesman, as a candidate for President. General Grant has been nominated solely in consequence of his military reputation. Waiving, for the present, the fundamental objection that the instrument is not adapted to the proposed use, and that the Presidency, during the next term, will afford no scope for the exertion of military talents, we challenge inquiry into the grounds of General Grant's fame as a soldier. We suppose none of his friends will seriously maintain that he is entitled to be called a great general merely because he has commanded great armies much less because he had exposed and lost in battle great multitudes of men. His reputation rests upon the fact that all his campaigns have been successful. But success against such adversaries of Pillow or Pemberton in the West is no very signal proof of abilities, unless they commanded greater forces; which they did not. General Lee was a more worthy antagonist; but General Lee was not conquered by fighting him, but by exhausting his resources. He stood on the defensive for nearly a year after Grant assumed command in the East, although the Confederacy was even then, when Grant crossed the Raipdan, tottering and well-nigh spent by three years' exertion in a strenuous and unequal struggle. It is certainly just to credit Grant with the capture of Lee; but there is a debit as well as a credit side to the account. What General Scott called "the economy of life by means of headwork," will be sought for in vain in the campaigns of Gen. Grant. His successes have been won by a prodigal expenditure of his soldiers. In his last and greatest campaign he pitted an enormous army against a small one, and sacrificed twice as many men as Gen. Lee had under his command. It is not justice but adulation, to praise him as if he had conquered an army as large as his own. It is not justice but an affront to humanity to give him as much credit as if he had achieved the same result without such wholesale sacrifices of men. The following is an authentic statement of the respective forces and losses of Generals Grant and Lee between the Rapidan and the James:

Grant on assuming command May 4, 1864, had of effective men besides the reserve, when he crossed the Rapidan, 125,000.

Lee at the same date had an effective force of 52,000.

Grant's reinforcements up to the battle of Cold Harbor, June 3, were 97,000.

Lee's reinforcements, up to the same date, were 18,000.

Grant's total force, including reinforcements, were 222,000.

Lee's total force, including reinforcements, was 70,000.

Returns to their respective Governments showed that when both armies had reached the James, June 10, the number of Grant's army that had been put hors du combat was, 117,000.

Up to the same date, the number of Lee's men who had been put hors du combat was, 19,000.

The two armies then met in front of Petersburg.

We have been at some pains to ascertain and verify these figures, and we vouch for their substantial accuracy. We shall take good care that they do not escape the notice, nor slip the recollection of the country. We cheerfully concede to General Grant the merit of success; but it is right that the country should know the terrible cost at which that success was purchased.

The truest test of military genius is the accomplishment of great results with slender means.

We can recall no instance (unless Grant be an instance) of a general who established his title to be called great, otherwise than by succeeding against great disadvantages—either superior numbers, or consummate abilities in the commanders opposed to him, or formidable physical obstacles. A man does not prove that he possesses a giant's strength by overmastering an invalid or a cripple. A general does not establish his title to be considered great by subduing an army one-third as large as his own, and losing five of his own men for every one that he disables of the enemy.

We have had some experience before of running successful generals as candidates for Presidency; but their achievements were, in this particular, a great contrast to those of General Grant. General Jackson won his brilliant victory as New Orleans with 7,000 men against a British army of 12,000. General Taylor had but about 6,000 men at Buena Vista, and the Mexicans twice or thrice that number. General Scott had 8,500 at Cerro Gordo, the Mexicans 12,000. The splendid victory of Contreras was achieved by Scott with 4,500, against 12,000 Mexicans. General Scott, in his report to the Secretary of War, speaking of the battles in front of Mexico said, "And I assert upon accumulated and unquestionable evidence, that in not one of these conflicts was this army opposed by fewer than three-and-a-half times its numbers—in several of them, by a yet greater excess." If it be said that Grant had disadvantages of ground and position to encounter in advancing through an enemy's country, the same is equally true of Scott, who nevertheless with greatly inferior numbers advanced rapidly from triumph to triumph, while Grant, operating with superior numbers against a nearly exhausted foe, required a whole year to capture Richmond, which finally succumbed to exhaustion, rather than to military genius.—*N. THE FLORIDA ELECTION.—How the Ballot-Boxes were stuffed.—The Baltimore Gazette makes the following extract from a private letter written by a gentleman living at Madison, Florida, and addressed to a gentleman in that city:

MADISON, Florida, May 10, 1868.

During three election days of Monday day, Tuesday and Wednesday last, we had exciting times. The Radicals had it all their own way on Monday, but we had it our way on Tuesday and Wednesday, and were certain our candidates had been elected in this county, if only by a small majority; but we were most awfully swindled in the end. The ballot box was made with a moveable slide, though in appearance all right. After it had been sealed with wax on the lock, over the heads of the nails, over the ticket hole and every other place possible, and each seal stamped with a peculiar seal, it was taken, when the polls were closed, to the honse of one Simon Katzenberg, (the candidate for the Senate), the secret seal removed, a number of the Democratic votes taken out and treble the number o Radical tickets put in their places. We succeeded in finding the man who made the box and he told us the plan was given him by Katzenberg What is more singular is that the box at Tallahassa, Leon county, was made in the same way, and while the voting was going on the side accidently fell out, and of course was instantly nialed up, though it had already been stuffed. Other counties were served in the same way. Several affidavits have been sworn to and sent to General Meade concerning this matter, but it is doubtful if any good will result therefrom. The Radicals have it all their own way.

HUMAN MONSTROSITY.—In Lincoln county, Tennessee, is a well developed white child of some ten years of age, walking, talking, eating, &c., in the most approved juvenile manner, with a third arm growing from its back, immediately between its shoulders. This arm, as it is called, is no flabby, useless excresence, as is common in such freaks of nature, but a healthy, well defined limb, with separate and appropriate bones, joints, muscles, etc., and applied by its little owner to a number of strange uses. In the centre of a plate of bone permanently uniting the shoulder-blades is the socket or first joint, permitting the limb to be moved freely in all directions, by means of several powerful and strangely complicated muscles. From the socket extends a tri-angular bone—or three small bones combined—perfectly straight, and about eight inches in length, terminating in a short flexible wrist, upon which closely fits the hand. This hand is somewhat in the shape and about the size of an ordinary funnel, with four finger-like projections at equal distances about the rim. The fingers have claw-like nails, joints, &c., and possess the power of opening and closing as in the ordinary hand, their grip, however, being much more powerful. The palm which seems already hardened by use, recedes into the wrist, leaving a small opening from which constantly oozes a dark mucous discharge entirely devoid of smell. At a word from its mother the child lifted and carried about with its member a small chair, and other unyielding articles; suspended itself from a walking stick—in fact, went through evolutions which would put to blush a well trained monkey. The limb, being perfect and harmonizing with the entire body, is nothing more nor less than a designed addition to it by its great author, and this little boy's birth has created a blank in natural history. —Nashville Union.

CONGREGATIONAL SINGING.—Why is it that in almost all our churches the singing is left to a few, generally to the choir? Why not all sing; there are very few persons to whom God has not given some musical powers, at least enough to join in the hymns sung during Divine services. The masses are not, however, so much to blame as those who lead the singing. There is too little spirit; the tunes are drawled out, every word and syllable lengthened and twisted, until the music, which would otherwise be the most inspiring portion of the worship, loses all interest and really becomes tiresome, for music loses all its charms when indifferently rendered. Then let there be an improvement; let the hymns be sung with spirit and energy, so that all will feel interested, and join in the worship of God, simply because they cannot help it, and are impelled by some strong inner power. Take the music away from devotional exercises and what have you? Many persons praise God more sincerely in this way than any other, because there is an irresistible charm about it; the heart fairly overflows with the excess of emotion. Give us good, spirited singing in which all can join, in our churches, and the result will be—fewer vacant pews.

A PENITENT on his death-bed recently sent one dollar to a man in Swanton, Vt., to pay for half a pint of brandy, with sugar stolen twenty years ago. Poverty and poor health were the causes of the theft.

DEMOCRATIC STATE NOMINATIONS.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL,

HON. CHARLES E. BOYLE,

of Fayette County.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL,

GEN. WELLINGTON H. ENT,

of Columbia County.

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY IN ITS DEATH THROES.

The recent political scenes through which we have passed—the impeachment of the President of the United States, for sinister partizan purposes, and its failure—the extreme malignity with which it was conducted by the Managers on the part of the House of Representatives, and the wrath which its result has extorted from the politicians and organs of the "Republican" party; all these remind us of what we have read of the death-bed conduct of incorrigible sinners. We have read of men who, in their dying agonies, fearless or reckless alike of Heaven and earth, cursed everything above and around them, even while the death-rattle was in their throats, and their time was measured to the smallest span. Such is now the condition of the party which has ruled the country, for the past eight years, with a rod of iron, and whose every instinct seemed to be mercenary, brutal and sanguinary. Malignant in all their conceptions and relentless throughout their whole course, there has not appeared, in all their actions, one gleam of magnanimity, or sympathy, one solitary ray of true christian feeling, one trait of genuine manhood, philanthrophy or patriotism, to screen them from the universal execration of mankind. All that the worst of despotisms has done since the world began, they have successfully accomplished within a few years. They have trampled upon the Constitution, and outraged every right which it guarantees to the people or to the States; they have invaded the rights of the Executive and of the Supreme Court, two independent, co-ordinate branches of the government; they have wasted the public domain and revelled in corruption; they have, in short, prostituted themselves, from first to last, for partizan or mercenary purposes. And now, having failed in their last and basest object, the impeachment of a President of their own choice, because, unlike themselves, he chose to reverence his oath and do his duty, they rave like the dying sinner whom they represent, and curse all that, purer and holier than themselves, stood as obstructions in the way they had chosen. In their case, as in the case of the sinners, this very raving is evidence that they have given up hope, that despair has seized upon their souls, that the death-rattle is in their throats, that their last hour is at hand, and that—Heaven be thanked!—the country will soon be rid of the greatest curse that ever was permitted to threaten its existence and blemish its fame.

How long will the American people endure? How much longer will they tolerate the reign of a party whose every act is evil, and whose every onward step brings us so much nearer destruction? There was a period in the history of the people of the United States, when acts such as we have witnessed and patiently submitted to, within the past two years, would not only have been indignantly frowned upon, but resisted with a power that would have made the actors pause and tremble. It is not so now. We bear what men should be ashamed to bear. And from whom? From a Congress, which has constituted itself an oligarchy, which is a disgrace to the nation; the representatives of a party calling itself "Republican," which exists only to be the destroyer of republicanism, and which must be put down, if we would have constitutional republicanism to live. And yet we pause, and palter, and procrastinate, while that accursed oligarchy and that anti-constitutional party go on, step by step, in rapid progress to the accomplishment of their design. If we would save the Republic, if we would preserve the constitution, and with it the rights and liberties of the people, if we would reunite the States in fraternal bonds, and restore the brotherhood and prosperity which are essential to our existence as a great, undivided, harmonious nation, there must be a great change of sentiment, a sudden and mighty re-action of public sentiment. Let us hope that it may be so. Nay, let us trust that it is so; for, if the "Republican" party is retained in power, and the congressional oligarchy continued, the character of the government will have been changed—the Republic will have ceased to exist.

Now is the time to send in subscriptions to the CAMPAIGN GAZETTE. See terms in another column.

MEAN!

If the combined smartness and meanness of some of the "Republican" politicians, should "strike in on them," it will be their certain death. For instance, John A. Logan ("Dirty work" Impeachment John) issued a hypocritical order some time ago, that the graves of the soldier dead, should be "strewed with flowers," on Saturday, the thirtieth day of May, which order was issued by the said Logan, as commander-in-chief of the secret, oath-bound society of the G. A. R. Now there is a post of this society in this place, which numbers, all told, some half dozen members. All of this half dozen are Radicals. When Logan's "strewing" order was received by the Bedford "post," it was determined by the latter, to invite the soldier citizens of the county, without distinction of politics, to participate in the ceremonies of decorating the graves. Accordingly, a number of prominent Democratic soldiers joined with "Republican" soldiers, in the published invitation to their comrades to meet with them upon this occasion. So far so good. But no sooner was this invitation issued, than the Radical politicians published a call for a political meeting, to ratify the nominations of their party for President and Vice President, which meeting was to be held as a sequel to the decoration of the graves! The Radicals having thus uncovered their little trap, Democratic soldiers and decent people generally, were justly indignant at the outrageous attempt to prostitute to base party uses the very graves that hold in sacred keeping the dust of the gallant dead. The Democrats at once called a meeting to denounce this infamous trick. When will the smart fellows who run the Radical machine in this place, learn that meanness and bad faith only recoil upon those who practise them? When will the decent men among our political opponents take courage to invite the conceited hashes and shallow tricksters who thrust themselves forward as leaders, to take their natural positions in the rear rank, and let those lead who are men and not mice?

FOILED!

The conspirators against the life of the Republic, have been defeated in their nefarious purpose. The votes of seven fearless men, have saved the Executive branch of the government from the annihilation meditated by the "Republican" Congressional oligarchy. God be praised that he put honesty and courage into the hearts of these men, to defy the insane demands of their party and to discharge their duty according to the dictates of conscience. Fessenden, Fowler, Grimes, Henderson, Ross, Trumbull and Van Winkle are names that will go down to posterity, honored and reverenced, whilst those of the petty partizans who would have destroyed an independent branch of the government, to subserve party ends, will be execrated or forgotten. The foul scheme to depose the President has been defeated by the very foremost men in the "Republican" party, and hence that portion of the Grant platform which sustains impeachment, is condemned by those men and will be repudiated by all "Republicans" who approve their course upon this important and vital issue. The Radical conspirators have been completely foiled, and their villanous trick to usurp the Government thoroughly exposed. The hounds that lately hunted President Johnson, have slunk back into their kennels, where they will remain securely holed for fear of "the wrath to come."

YES, BUT THE PLATFORM!

"Grant captured Richmond!" says a Radical smart fellow.

Yes, but the platform!

"Grant crushed the rebellion," claims a "loyal" chap.

Yes, but the platform!

"Grant ended the war," asserts another admirer of Useless S.

Yes, but the platform!

It is not Grant you are asked to endorse. It is that platform! that odious, infamous, execrable Chicago platform! that confession of political faith which approves of making 600,000 ignorant and degraded Blacks, just emerged from slavery, equal in the government to one fifth of the white voters of the North! Can you vote for Grant on that platform? That is the question.

THE Chicago Convention dubbed the Radical party with a new name, or rather with several old ones patched together. For the present it shall be known as the "National Union Republican Party." Whew! what a long tail our cat has got. But that cat will get its tail shinged before the ides of November. Mark it!

—The blood which Grant predicted would be shed in consequence of the acquittal of the President is still unshed.

GOT 'EM AT LAST!

We ask every white man "unto whom these presents may come," to read the "Republican" platform upon which U. S. Grant is to run for President. We print it, letter for letter, on our first page. The first and second resolutions of that platform commit Grant and the "Republican" party openly, avowedly and unequivocally, to the Thad. Stevens Reconstruction policy which makes voters of 600,000 Negroes and gives the political control of ten States to these semi-barbarous people just emerged from the condition of slaves. Thus at last, is the "Republican" party and its candidate for President, placed before the people in their true colors. There is no longer any blinking of the issue. We've got them on the record at last! No man can vote for U. S. Grant without voting to endorse the making of 600,000 Negro voters, and the giving of those ignorant ex-slaves as much political power as is possessed by all the voters of New York, or Pennsylvania. Now, my boys, you vote with your eyes open. "You pays your money and you takes your choice."

GLORY!

The President has been acquitted on the second and third articles of impeachment, and the high old court, on Tuesday last, abandoned the remaining articles and adjourned sine die. The vote was 35 for conviction and 19 for acquittal, the same as on the eleventh article. This auspicious result assures the downfall of the sham "Republican" party. The politicians of that party staked their all upon the success of impeachment, and lost! Their prestige is broken, their organization is demoralized, their esprit du corps is gone, and their party is literally "dead on its feet." Grant cannot galvanize it into life, the G. A. R. cannot save it, and all that is left to be done for it, is to give it a decent burial out of the sight of men. The political preachers might as well begin to write its funeral sermon.

READ THE CHICAGO PLATFORM.

Yes, read it! Grant pledged to "maintain" 600,000 Negroes as voters under the doctrine of "Equal Suffrage to all loyal men at the South!" Grant pledged to pay the three thousand millions of the Federal debt, at home and abroad, IN GOLD! Grant pledged to equalize and lower taxation, by inducing capitalists to loan the Government money! Grant pledged to the endorsement of the ridiculous and outrageous farce of Impeachment! Grant pledged to the vilification of Andrew Johnson, by charging him with the responsibility for the corruption of officials whom a "Republican" Congress refused to permit him to remove! Such is the platform, with the addition of a few "glittering generalities" about the rights of naturalized citizens, which would be all right, if they were sincerely meant. A famous old platform, isn't it? If Mr. Grant can carry the 600,000 Negro voters on his back, he is more of an Atlas than we take him to be.

WILL HE RESIGN?

A decent respect for his position, would induce Grant to resign the office of Lieutenant General. Will he do it? Is it proper that a candidate for President, should have the power to wield the force of the whole army in his own behalf? When Gen. M'Clellan accepted the Democratic nomination for President in 1864, he at once resigned his Generalcy. Will Grant have the manliness to do the same? No! not he! His office of Lieutenant General yields him a salary of 20,000 per annum, and he cannot forego this nice little sugar-plum.

ENLARGEMENT.

At the close of the present volume, on the first of August next, the GAZETTE will be enlarged to thirty-two columns, and will then be one of the largest weeklies in the State. As this enlargement will entail considerable expense upon us, we ask all who are in arrears to pay up promptly. Cannot one thousand of our subscribers pay in advance. On the first of August we will begin the publication of a Roll of Honor, which will contain the names of all subscribers who pay for their paper in advance. Now friends, let us see whether this list cannot be made to run up to one thousand names. One half of our subscribers, at least, should pay in advance.

DEATH OF EX-PRESIDENT JAMES BUCHANAN.

RADICAL PLATFORM.—Greenbacks for the people, and Gold for the Bondholders;

Ballots for the Negroes, and Taxes for white men;

Is the essence of the last Chicago Platform.

The Way the Dead Duckites Procure Political Capital.

The Savannah, Georgia, Republican says that "On Saturday last we received the following dispatch from Philadelphia:"

To John E. Hayes, Editor Republicon:

Please telegraph to Press to-morrow (Sunday, 17th,) a short dispatch of the feeling in your city on the reception of the news from Washington to-day. I will reciprocate if you desire Answer. JOHN W. FORNEY, Jr.,
Managing Ed. for Phila. Press.

Agreeably to this request the editor transmitted the following:

OFFICE DAILY REPUBLICAN, SAVANNAH, Ga., May 17, 1868.—To Philadelphia Press: The telegrams announcing probable acquittal of President received with joy, by Conservatives. Radical office-holders and seekers disgusted and alarmed at the news. Intense anxiety prevails among all classes to hear final decision, while it is generally conceded by both parties President will be acquitted. The patriotic and unselfish course of Fessenden, Grimes and other Republican Senators has had most salutary effect upon minds of the ultra Southern people and will prove beneficial to our whole country.

(Signed) JOHN E. HAYES.

Of course the above did not suit the dead duck, and accordingly the following was substituted:

Special Telegram to the Phila. Press.

SAVANNAH, Ga., May 17.—The news announcing the probable acquittal of Andrew Johnson was received here with joy by the Rebels. The Union men are cast down and alarmed; they fear the result. The so-called Conservatives of this city are more outspoken than ever, and we can look for an early expression of their views and feelings, in a manner peculiar to the ultra Southerner. From all parts of the State comes word of the rejoicings of the ex-Rebel soldiers. The perfidy of the Republican Senators will cause many a Northern man in Georgia to return home. To stay here has long been scarcely possible. Now no Unionist will be allowed to remain. Intense excitement prevails everywhere to hear the final decision, but it is generally conceded by both parties that the cause of Jeff. Davis has been this time triumphant.

We of Pennsylvania are not surprised at an act so small and mean, when laid at the door of a dead duck family, but the Savannah editor is justly indignant, and wastes a high-toned editorial upon the perpetrators of it. The game is not worth a percussion cap much less a charge of fine rifle powder.

Conservative Soldiers' and Sailors' National Convention.

The Executive Committee appointed by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention, held at Cleveland in 1866, have called a National Convention of the Conservative Soldiers and Sailors of the United States, to meet at the city of New York, the 4th of July next, to take action on the nomination of Conservative candidates for President and Vice President. As it is desirable that Pennsylvania should be fully represented in said convention, we request our late comrades in arms to take the necessary action to have delegates elected or appointed from every Congressional district in the State.—As the time is rapidly approaching when the convention will meet, there should be no delay in the matter.

Resignation of Secretary Stanton.

At about 3.30 this afternoon the President received the following communication from Mr. Stanton:

WAR DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, May 26, 1866.

SIR:—The resolution of the Senate of the United States of the 21st of Feb. last, declaring that the President has no power to remove the Secretary of War and designate any other officer to perform the duties of that office ad interim, having this day failed to be supported by two-thirds of the Senators present and voting on the articles of impeachment preferred against you by the House of Representatives, I have relinquished charge of the War Department, and have left the same, and the books, archives, papers and property in my custody as Secretary of War in care of Brevet Major General Townsend, the Senior Assistant Adjutant General, subject to your direction. EDWIN M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

To the President.

A SUMMING UP.—A writer in the Bridgeport (Connecticut) Farmer thus sums up what has and what has not been accomplished by the war. He says:

"I was one of thos patriotic cusses who considered it to be his duty to fight for the Union. I was always very fond of the Union, Messrs. Editors, and I supposed that all that was necessary to restore it was to lick the rebels. Candor, however compells me to admit that I have been mistaken. Much, however has been accomplished and muchly, if not more, has not been accomplished. We will state it thusly:

ACCOMPLISHED.

Rebels licked like thunder.
Five hundred thousand men killed.
A few more disabled.
The desolation and devastation of the South.
The abolition of slavery and the abolition of the white people of the South; also the abolition of the Constitution of the United States.
An insignificant debt; say two or three thousand millions.
Heavy taxes.
Negro suffrage.
Negro representation in Congress.
Africanization, miscegenation, etc.

NOT ACCOMPLISHED.

The restoration of the Union.

These, Messrs. Editors, are but a few of the objects which we have accomplished by the war for the Union! I trust, sirs, that in future you will not have the audacity to claim that "the war was a failure."

The Jefferson Davis Trial.

RICHMOND, May 31.—It is now probable that Jefferson Davis' trial will be postponed until October, as the leading counsel on both sides have agreed on that time. The witnesses had been summoned for Wednesday next. Davis has not arrived here, in view of the probability of the postponment.

—In Middle and West Georgia the rust has appeared in the grain crops.

THE CAPITAL REDEEMED!

Grant's Nomination Ratified by a Democratic Victory!

WASHINGTON, June 1.

Washington is redeemed. Given, the Democratic candidate is elected Mayor by about one hundred and fifty (150) majority. The Democrats carry four wards out of seven and secure both branches of the City Council.

NEWS AND OTHER ITEMS.

The Radical method of guaranteeing a "republican form of government" to States of the Union, consists in taking the ballot out of the hands of white men and putting it in the hands of negroes, and keeping a standing army to crush out complaint.

—America is the only despotism of of modern times where the bulk of taxes is laid on industry. The very paupers of America are taxed, while the bloated Eastern nabob rolls about in his magnificent exemption.

—Six citizens of Hamburg, S. C., have been arrested for refusing to allow freedmen to hold a political meeting in the Union Church in that town. They are to be tried before a military commission at Aiken, by order of Gen. Canby.

—Salnave is gaining ground against the rebels in Hayti. He has recaptured a fortress on the south side of Port au Prince. The foreign consuls hold out against his demand for rendition of refugees.

—Joseph Brown was hanged on Saturday, at Hudson, New York, for the Canaan child murder. He made a written statement. He made a speech on the scaffold, in which he denounced the State's attorney and the witnesses. He declared his innocence, and said he had nothing to do with the murder, and did not know who had.

—On Tuesday morning the Connecticut Legislature elected ex-Governor William A. Buckingham, of Norwich, United States Senator for six years from the fourth of March next. The vote stood: Senate—Buckingham, 12; Dixon, 9. House—Buckingham, 124 Dixon 109. Absent, 5.

—Youatt, the well-known veterinary surgeon, who has been bitten eight or ten times by rabid animals, says that crystal of the nitrate of silver rubbed into the wound will positively prevent hydrophobia in the bitten person or animal.

The Lynn (Mass.) Reporter says that an aged lady who died in that city recently, in the eighty-fifth year of her age, was watched the night previous to her death, by her twin sister.

—Captain John L. Worden, formerly of the Monitor, goes to Germany, in June, for his health. He has never recovered from the wound he received in the famous fight in Hampton Roads.

—Satrap Canby on Tuesday removed thirteen of the eighteen aldermen of Charleston, South Carolina. Under the new organization there will be seven negroes in the board. This is Radical 'reconstruction,' par excellence.

—It is said that both Grant and Colfax consider their chances of election entirely too slim to warrant their resignation, and they have concluded to hold on to what they have.

—Mayor Watkins, of Columbus, Ga., and all the aldermen, have been removed from office by Gen Meade. Capt Mills, U. S. A., has been appointed mayor.

—The Missouri delegates to the Fourth of July convention have been chosen, but not instructed, though most of them are said to favor Pendleton.

—The citizens who were arrested in Hamburg, S. C., for not allowing freedmen to hold a political meeting in a church have been released on promising to give bail for their appearance when their trial takes place.

—Yellow fever has killed two thousand people at Callao, Peru, and half the people have left the city. Most of those who died were foreigners.

—The gallant white men of Paraguay still hold at bay the superior numbers of the Brazilian Emperor's mongrel army. Three cheers for gallant little Paraguay.

—Mr. John Mansfield, residing on Boston street, Lynn, now seventy-seven years of age, has worked sixty-three years on a shoemaker's seat, and for the last thirty years in one shop.

—Cattle from Texas, with horns so long that they can scarcely pass the car door, and hoofs corresponding, are at Cairo awaiting shipment East.

—John J. Clayton, an old merchant of Augusta, Ga., has committed suicide by firing the contents of a shot-gun into his breast.

IN RUSSIA, by a recent ukase, all persons are required to salute the police and to remain uncovered when addressed by any member of the force. A severe penalty is attached to a violation of these orders.

GATHER THEM IN.—The brightest intellects of the opposition are falling into rank with the party of the Union, the Constitution and the laws.

—Since Stanton has found himself unable to "stick" to his garrison, where will the ads stick him now?

—It is said that Stanton expresses himself entirely and intensely disgusted with the whole Radical party.

Shocks of Earthquakes.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1.—Two heavy shocks of earthquake were felt at Sacramento, at 9 o'clock last night, but were not felt at all at San Francisco or along the coast, but were severe in the State of Nevada, which seems to have been the principal seat of disturbance. Four heavy shocks were felt at Fort Churchill and Virginia City, but no damage was done.

At Virginia City large buildings were racked and everybody rushed out of doors. The pumps in the Savage Mine were stopped, the miners thinking a cave had occurred.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Wooley's case.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—Another excitement was raised in the House today by the introduction of a resolution by General Butler to cut off Wooley from all communication from the outside world. The Democrats, as on yesterday, denounced General Butler, his committee, and the Republicans generally. Several Republicans opposed the resolution, and General Butler at last consented to modify it so as to allow the prisoner's family, his counsel, and his physician to visit him. In this shape it was passed.

General Schofield,

the new Secretary of War, is expected here to-morrow from Richmond. He will take charge of the War Department on Monday. There was a rumor to-day that the President would refuse to sign his commission, owing to the manner in which the Senate confirmed him. It is believed, however, that there is no foundation for this.

Adjutant-General Townsend

is still in charge of the War Office, but does not transact any business as Secretary of War.

Admission of Southern States.

It is very plain that the Radicals are quarreling among themselves in regard to the proposed admission of five or six of the now excluded States of the South. The more ultra men of the party say that they will lose by the operation, and that the "carpet baggers" are not to be relied on. They instance the case of Fowler, of Tennessee, on the impeachment question, to show that the so-called "trooly loil" men of the South are too uncertain in great party measures to be admitted to seats in Congress. Therefore they are in favor of going on under the present arrangement, especially until after the Presidential election.

The Attorney-Generalship.

The President to-day, among other nominations, sent to the Senate the name of Hon. Henry Stanbery to be Attorney General of the United States.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—General Schofield was in conference yesterday with the President in relation to the business of the War Department, which became somewhat complicated during the contest over its late occupant.—General Schofield has received a leave of absence for a year, and has signified his willingness to accept the office. His commission has been prepared, and he assumed control this morning. Thus terminates the long struggle to deprive the Executive of the right to associate with him, in the administration of the affairs of Government, men who will labor in harmony with him, and upon whose ability and fidelity he can rely.

Mr. Stanton, it is said, is arranging affairs with a view to an early departure from the scene of his inglorious defeat.

Horrible Murder at Kingston, Mass.

PLYMOUTH, Mass., May 27.—Cornelius Holmes, brother of Alexander Holmes, formerly President of the Old Colony Railroad, was found murdered about seven o'clock this morning, in a by road near the back entrance to the cemetery in the adjoining town of Kingston, with his brains beaten out. It is stated that at eight o'clock last evening, while he was at the house of Samuel Andrews, a boy came to the door and delivered to him a note, upon which he remarked that he must be going, and started by the path across the cemetery for the Stony Brook neighborhood, at the depot. Mr. Holmes was quite a wealthy man, but not being of a strong mind, his property has been mostly held in trust. It is known that he received quite a large sum of money yesterday, which was found upon him. It is supposed that the murderer was frightened away before robbing his victim. The scene of the murder gave evidence of a violent struggle. No positive clue has yet been obtained of the murderer, and the wildest excitement and suspicion pervades the usually quiet town of Kingston.

Consternation in Canada.

MONTREAL, May 30.—The utmost consternation and alarm prevails among the authorities and people here. Last night despatches were received by the General commadding, conveying information of the gathering of a considerable body of men at Buffalo, and another body at St. Albans. As the result, telegrams were sent to Toronto to call out the volunteers at a moments notice, and a battery of the royal artillery was at once ordered to the front. Barracks for the accommodation of 3,000 men have been erected at St. Johns. The volunteers at the front have been under orders all day in expectation, of a Fenian invasion. Two companies of the city guard left this afternoon for St. Johns. The number of Fenians at Albans is said to be two hundred. Gunboats have been despatched to patrol the river in the neighborhood of Prescott and Kingston. The Royal Canadian Rifles, stationed at Prescott, are to be uniformed.

THE LATE KIT CARSON.—The name of Kit Carson, whose death is just announced, is one that has been the synonym of wild adventure and daring to all Americans of the present generation. The death of the renowned and redoubtable "Kit" took place at Fort Lynn, on the 23d of May, of a rupture of an artery in the neck.—His career has been one of romantic interest, as a trapper, guide and mountaineer. He was born in Kentucky in 1809. In 1847 he was appointed lieutenant in the rifle corps of the United States army. In 1853 he drove 6,500 sheep over the mountains to California, this being then considered a very hazardous undertaking, and, on his return to Taos, was appointed Indian agent in New Mexico. He has been largely instrumental in bringing about the treaties between the United States and the Indians, and on a mission of this kind he visited Wasington not long ago in company with a deputation of the red men, and made a tour of several of the northern and eastern cities.

NOTICE TO DELINQUENTS.—We have placed our books and accounts in the hands of John P. Reed, Esq., of thsi place, for collection. All accounts for subscription for the year ending August 1, 1868, remaining unpaid, are included in the bills which Mr. Reed is authorized to collect. We have been compelled to resort to this course in order to obtain a settlement of our accounts. We have too much to do to attend to making out bills, and we are tired of dunning. Money we must have, as we have many debts to pay, and we desire to act honestly with our creditors. Therefore, we ask all to pay Mr. Reed, who can, and those who cannot, we ask to call and settle. If there is any thing in their accounts by which they consider themselves aggrieved, let them call on us, and we will make all right that is not right. Friends, let us have the old scores wiped out, and begin anew

White Men Must Rule America!

"Light, more light!" is the startling cry of the honest people groping in the darkness of Radicalism. "Light, more light!" shouts the groaning taxpayer, bending under the load which a Radical Congress has heaped upon him. "Light, more light!" is the pleading cry that comes to us from those who earnestly seek a remedy for the disease that is tugging at the vitals of the nation. Look and ye shall see! Read and ye shall know! The BEDFORD GAZETTE, for the Presidential Campaign, will be a complete compendium of political news, speeches, documents and every thing that pertains to a political canvass in the columns of a weekly newspaper. It will be published from the first day of June until the seventh of November, next, at the following low terms, cash in advance:

One copy,	$ .75
Ten copies,	6.00
Twenty copies,	11.00
Fifty copies,	25.00

Not only should every Democrat have his county newspaper, during the coming campaign, but he should likewise make it a point to furnish his Republican neighbor a copy. This is the plan upon which our opponents have acted for years, and it is about time that Democrats do something of the same sort. NOW, GO TO WORK and put your Democratic newspaper into the hands of every Republican who will read. If you will do this you will accomplish more good in six months than you will by any other means in six years. Democratic politicians, throughout the county, are enabled, by the above low terms, to circulate Democratic newspapers at a very small cost. We appeal to them to see to getting up clubs, and to see to it in time. Now is the time to sow the seed. After a little while the heat of passion and prejudice will beam upon the public mind in all its intense fierceness, and then seed-time will have passed. Friends, let us hear from you!

THE CAMPAIGN OPENED!

Bedford County Awake!

HANCOCK AND LIBERTY!

The People aroused! Great Enthusiasm! Powerful Speeches, &c.

The campaign of 1868 opened auspiciously in Bedford county, on last Saturday night. A meeting was called for the purpose of congratulating the country on the failure of the Impeachment farce; on the removal of the man Stanton, from the War Office who has been at the bottom of the late attempted outrage on the Constitution and liberties of the people, and to express a preference for the Democratic Presidential nomination. It was the most successful impromptu meeting held in Bedford for many a day. The balcony of the Mengel House, in front of which the meeting was held, was illuminated, while overhead and across the street, hung beautiful flags, with a star for every State.

On motion of E. F. Kerr, Esq., the meeting was organized by the election of the following officers: President, Capt. THOS. H. LYONS. Vice Presidents, W. R. King, Lawrence Defibaugh, J. Clayton Brashear, W. M. Earnest, Joseph Mortimore, Philip Huzzard, A. D. Koontz, Josiah Haley, Daniel Fletcher, W. M. Wisel, Isaac Earnest and J. T. Gephart. Secretaries, W. W. Barclay, W. C. Schaffer and John Keeffe.

The Band played "Red, White and Blue," after which Col. JOHN H. FILLER was introduced amid the cheers of the crowd. He held the meeting for over one hour by one of his most forcible and logical speeches. He showed the danger the country was in, by running a man for President who had sixty battallions of soldiers at his back, to help him carry ten States now pinned together by the bayonet. A party representing itself as the embodiment of the loyalty of the country was now lead by Butler and Logan, the one voting fifty-seven times for Jeff. Davis for President, and the other raising rebel troops and sending them across the Ohio into the Confederacy. But we will not attempt to give even an outline of his able effort.

O. E. Shannon was called upon and responded in his usual felicitous manner. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed, and the whole affair augurs well for the success of the Democratic party in the coming contest.

The meeting adjourned with three rousing cheers for HANCOCK.

THE nomination of Grant, and his willingness to stand on the Chicago platform, falls on the people like a dead weight, and Hall's ratification meeting was in consequence a perfect fizzle. Cessna knew it, and to avoid the humiliating spectacle of failure in attempting to ratify a nomination he had helped to make, left town. Perhaps the fear that Hall might endeavor to prove, by holy writ, that slavery is a divine institution, kept many away; or, perhaps, the speech he had prepared for the April court meeting, and was prevented from making on account of a brother screecher talking "against time," was not considered worth listening to now. Who knows? At any rate, Hall should try his hand at something else, for evidently getting up ratification meetings is not his forte.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO THOSE HAVING PIANO FORTES.—Mr. T. A. Salvo, the celebrated Piano Forte tuner, from new York, will remain in town a few days and all those who are desirous of having their Pianos put in good order and their Original Sweetness of Tone Restored to them as when they were new, can now improve the opportunity. Mr. S. has been in Huntingdon for the past four weeks tuning and he respectfully refers to B. M. Green, music dealer. Mr. Salvo has the highest of testimonials from Professors of Music from New York and Pennsylvania. He will visit each Piano twice a year. Having given the highest satisfaction to all his customers he hopes for a continuance of the same. All orders left at the Gazette Office will be promptly attended to.

GREAT GRANT GRATIFICATION!

Cold Comfort for Colfax!

Fuss, Feathers, Fizzle!

We have seen many political fiascos and break-downs, in this town and elsewhere, but last Saturday night when the Impeachers attempted to hold a Grant and Colfax ratification meeting in the court house, "topped the climax." The day set apart to perform the mournful duty of decorating the graves of the dead soldiers, was selected as the most fitting occasion for opening the political ball of 1868. Whether this was done with the connivance of the post commander of the G. A. R., we are not prepared to say, but we do know, that the originators of the scheme met with merited rebuke. It was the most complete failure we ever saw. Due notice of the pow-wow had been given, the court room was lit up, the bell was rung once, twice, and the janitor was waiting patiently for the Impeachers to make their appearance. At last one came and ordered the lights to be put out as they had concluded to hold the meeting in a room down stairs. They did hold it there, and such a meeting of a once powerful party! A few office-seekers, a few renegade Democrats—men who are still clinging to the rotten timbers of the decayed old ship of Radicalism, whilst the honest crew is coming ashore as fast as they can leave the wreck—were all that could be mustered together under the leadership of the great Grant, backed by the patent extension platform lately manufactured at Chicago. One who made an actual count; informs us that there were not enough present to act as pall-bearers to the defunct body of the great Radical party, late of Washington City, deceased. Alas! how have the mighty fallen!

OUGHT TO BE COURT MARTIALED.—The Commander of this post of the G. A. R. ought to investigate the conduct of the parties who tried to get up a Grant and Colfax ratification meeting on last Saturday night. What right had the latter to interfere with the ceremonies of the former, by attempting to wind up the proceedings of the day with a political harangue on the virtues of the nominees of the Chicago convention? The Grand army of the Republic, with John A. Logan as head-center, is one thing, and the Radical party with Washburne, Butler and Logan as its leaders, is quite another. Don't everybody see it? According to the "sedentary" remarks of Gov. Geary, whose name has become a "synonym" in the gubernatorial chair, those fellows "ought to be drumhead court martialed and shot!" The nasty politicians!

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—On last Wednesday we were visited by a severe thunder storm, some of the fatal effects of which, so far as they have come to our knowledge, we give to our readers:

In Juniata tp., while Mr. Joseph Goon was in the act of unhitching his horses from the plow, he was struck by lightning, the two horses instantly killed, and himself so severely injured that no hope is entertained of his recovery. Strange to say, a sucking colt was with the horses at the time and escaped unhurt.

In this borough, James Curboy, Jr., who was standing near his stable with a shovel in his hand, was knocked down, but beyond being stunned for a while, sustained no serious injury.

In Bedford tp., the new brick house of Charles Stuckey, was struck, a chimney demolished and the house otherwise damaged.

DECORATING SOLDIERS' GRAVES.—According to notice given, the surviving soldiers of the late war, met at the Court House, on Saturday last. The turnout was not so large as was anticipated. The meeting was called to order by selecting the following named officers:—President, Capt. Adam Weaverling; Vice Presidents, Lt. John Keeffe, George Stiffler and B. A. Cooper. Secretaries, Corp. W. W. Barclay and Serg. W. Bolinger. Committee on Resolutions. Capt. Thos. H. Lyons, Corp. J. T. Keagy and Corp. James Over. While the Committee were out, J. H. Longenecker, Esq., addressed the meeting in a few remarks pertinent to the occasion, after which the soldiers formed into line in front of the court house, and preceded by a band of music, marched to the several cemeteries about town and decorated the graves of their fallen comrades with evergreen wreaths and flowers.

HUNG HIMSELF.—On last Friday morning, the body of a man was found hanging on the limb of a fallen tree, near the turnpike, about two miles west of Bloody Run. The limb on which he had chocked himself to death, was about four and a half feet from the ground. John A. Gump, Esq., summoned a jury and held an inquest over the remains. From his passport, found on his person, we learn that he was born in Prussia, in 1821, and that he left that count y in November last. His name was Frederick Kleinman; What led him to commit the rash deed, no one will ever know.

IMPORTANT TO SOLDIERS OF THE WAR OF 1812.—The Auditor General is now prepared to furnish parties with blanks and instructions for obtaining pensions for the old soldiers of the war of 1812 and their widows, authorized by the reviving act of the last Legislature. Applicants must have served at least two months, or been disabled, or have engaged in actual battle in said war, and must not be worth over $500 in property, real or personal. Parties who received a gratuity under the act of 1866, repealed by the act of 1867, will not be entitled to a continuation of their annuity of $40. Settlement will not be made until the first of July, by which time all claims filed, will be adjudicated by the Auditor General.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.—We are accustomed to make short stories with the numerous traveling agents for "specific" remedies, pills, bitters, and quack nostrums, generally, who seek to use our columns for the purpose of humbugging the public and filling their own pockets; and we propose to pursue the same course in future, excluding all such advertisements of questionable character. We give place to the advertisement of Hoofland's German Bitters, which occupies a column elsewhere, because from personal experience in their use, we know the bitters to be a valuable medicine; and while we are not prepared to say that they will effect a cure of all diseases for which they are recommended, we cheerfully testify their value as a remedy for diseases of the liver, general debility, dyspepsia, and all complaints arising from a disordered condition of the stomach and digestive organs. The bitters are purely medicinal in their character, and not a device for selling and drinking rum, as they contain no alcohol in any shape.

THE REGULATOR.—Nothing can afford half as much pleasure as a visit to Irvine's Boot, Shoe, Queesware, Glassware and variety store, where he has just received and has on exhibition one of the best and most desirable selection of goods, in his line, ever offered to the citizens of Bedford and vicinity. Be sure and call.

PHOTOGRAPHIC.—T. R. Gettys has returned from the Eastern cities with a superior lot of frames, albums, fancy cases, and all the late improvements in the art, and has recently fitted up his photographic rooms in splended style. He is prepared to take all the new styles of pictures. Call and examine his gallery.

THE HOLY SACRAMENT of the Lord's Supper will be administered in the Lutheran Church, in this place, on Sunday next, services beginning at 10½ o'clock, a. m. Services preparatory will be held on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

BERKSTRESSER & Co. make ready-made clothing, hats and caps, and gents' furnishing goods a speciality, and therefore always offer to the public the very best and latest styles, at the most reasonable prices.

NEW GOODS.—G. R. Oster & Co. are now receiving, at their spacious new store, an unusually attractive stock of choice and desirable cheap goods.

J. M. SHOEMAKER has just received and opened a superior stock of cheap and seasonable goods. Call and examine them.

It would be a gross libel to say that ladies use tobacco, yet, if you present a a bottle PHALON'S new perfume, "FLOR DE MAYO," to a pretty girl, she will be very apt to open it and take a little snuff. Sold by all druggists.

PERSONS wanting Hymn Books, Presbyterian, Lutheran or Methodist, Episcopalian Prayer Books, or Bibles, will find a splendid lot from which to select, at the INQUIRER Book Store.

DR. S. I. TOBIAS' PULMONIC LIFE SYRUP, for the cure of Incipient Consumption, Coughs, colds, Croup, Asthma, Liver Complaints, Dyspepsia, and General Debility. For several years I have been urged by kind freinds, who have used, and been benefited by, my Life Syrup, to put it up for general sale; but few know the large expense, now that the country is flooded with Patent Medicines, which attend the same For years past I was reluctant to do so, as the capital required would be large, and I did not wish to curtail the operations of my Venetian Liniment business. But, thanks to the generous public, who have appreciated my Venetian Liniment, I am now able to do so, without any detriment to my large business in that medicine. The foundation of my success I attribute to attending to the manufacture of every drop myself, and shall do the same in regard to my Pulmonic Life Syrup. The Ingredients are perfectly harmless, but act on the Lungs and Liver with astonishing effect. Price 75 cents. Depot, No. 56 Cortlandt Street, New York, near Jersey City Ferry. We have a business experience of more than 25 years, have been longer established than any house in our trade in Philadelphia.

We employ sufficient capital to make ALL PURCHASES FOR CASH, which, together with the fact that our large business enables us to buy in large amounts in first hands, thereby saving all profits of jobbers and middlemen, give us advantages in purchasing at the lowest rates, SHARED BY NO HOUSE IN OUR TRADE.

We sell only for cash and having no losses from bad debts to provide for, the paying customer is not TAXED TO HELP PAY THE DEBT OF ANOTHER who does not pay, as is inevitably the case in a business where credit is given.

We employ the best talent in all departments, which, with long experience, enable us to manufacture garments SUPERIOR IN EVERY RESPECT—equalled by few—surpassed by none.

We have the largest establishment for the manufacture and sale of clothing in Philadelphia, extending through from 518 Market street to 511 Minor street, occupied exclusively by ourselves, also a branch store at 600 Broadway, New York, and keep at all times of

We have recently added to our previous stock a full assortment of CHILDREN'S GARIBALDI AND OTHER SUITS, equal to any in the city in style, trimming, and make; which are sold at lower prices than have hitherto been known in Philadelphia. They, with all our Boys' and Youth's goods, are kept on the first floor, nearest the front, convenient for ladies. We have also recently opened on our SECOND FLOOR A CUSTOM DEPARTMENT for the display of a choice selection of Foreign and Domestic Fabrics in the piece, which will be MADE UP TO ORDER, in the best style, by competent and skillful cutters and workmen. The advantage of dealing with a CASH HOUSE will be especially apparent in this department, upon a comparison of prices.

MEDICAL.—DR. A. S. SMITH, having resumed the Practice of Medicine, solicits a generous share of the patronage of the community. Office in his residence, at St Clairsville.
He would call the attention of the public, and to those more immediately interested to the following: His health being too delicate to bear much of the fatigues and exposures consequent on general practice, he has adopted a speciality in the profession.
Soon after commencing practice, some twenty years since, he was attracted by the almost universality of female complaints, both in the married and single state. Partly from natural inclination, and in order to obtain success in practice, these complaints were made the subject of incessant study. These alterations, displacements and deranged functions of the organs peculiar to the female, are owing to that refined sense of delicacy on the part of the female, who, ignorant of the consequences, prefers to suffer in silence rather than expose her situation. Seldom cured by the general practitioner, who is prevented by this delicacy from acquiring by experience that tact and skill necessary to discriminate the exact change present, and contents himself with prescribing for the deranged functions, or overlooking the cause, simply for attendant nervous disorders, founding his prescriptions on a Plethoric Anaemonic state of the general system and the result is no benefit, as the number of the long suffering females bears ample testimony. Believing that he has, from long and special attention paid to them, acquired that skill in discriminating and experience in treating, he solicits the suffering to give him a call. No charges for consultation or examination. Visits made to all parts of the county.
Applications for medicines can be made in writing by accompanying stamp for return letter.—Medicines sent when desired. TERMS invariably cash for all medicines and instruments.

MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED. Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriages, etc.; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY and FITS, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.
☞Price in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.
The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.
☞This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land
Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Also, Dr Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address the Publishers,

The "VOX HUMANA TREMOLO" is the greatest of all modern improvements on reed instruments. It CHARMS and SURPRISES all who hear it, by its wonderful resemblance to the HUMAN VOICE. Do not confound this with the common tremolo in use. It is entirely different, and far superior to any other.
